Returned from Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Corley, Mr. and Mrs. Meade Spicer, and Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Peter Jones returned to Richmond Thursday evening on a special train with Miss Alma Gluck, having been in Norfolk to attend her concert there on that evening. Other Richmond people who attended the concert in Norfolk Thursday evening were Miss Jean Tring, Mrs. Arthur Servenier, George W. Stevens and many others.

Mr. Corley had his guests in a box for Miss Gluck's concert. Mrs. Corley, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Spicer and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ferries Reid occupied a box and had as their guests Mrs. Frank Coe, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. John S. Jenkins and Mrs. F. C. Steinmetz.

Lee Chapter Dances.

A great many tables have been reserved for the big "the dancant" to be given under the auspices of the Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, this afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel. There will be a contest dance for a silver cup and honor ribbons and some social dances by Miss Nora White and Miss French Patten. Mrs. Andrew Jackson Montague is president of the chapter, and its membership includes some of the most prominent society women in town.

Decorations will be in palms, bay trees and spring flowers, and an orchestra will play for the dancing. This is the first of a series of similar entertainments to be given by Lee Chapter.

At the Clubs.

There will be dancing this afternoon and evening at the Country Club of Virginia and the usual weekly hop at the Hermitage Golf Club. These club dances are largely attended, and many parties motor to the club houses for tea and dinner.

The Westoverland Club will give the fifth of a series of informal dances to members and their families and guests this evening from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock.

Miss Marshall Entertained.

A charmingly arranged dinner was given Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock by Albert S. Bolling at the University Tea Room, Charlottesville, in honor of Mrs. John S. Marshall's birthday. The table, which was in the shape of a four-leaf clover, was artistically decorated in Jonquils, each guest's place being marked with a carnation.

Those present were Miss Smith, Miss Parsons, Miss Thatcher, who are guests of Miss Marshall; Mr. Phillips, Mr. Todd, Mr. Harrison, Mr. McGuire, Mr. Evans and Mr. Bolling.
